The Global Ambassador Program in China

The Global Ambassador Program focuses on authentic immersion to contemporary China and global leadership development for American high school students. This program at a historic coastal city in China offers students an engaging, fun, and intellectually stimulating environment. The participating students in the program are from China, Germany, and the United States.

Explore authentic, full China immersion opportunities

as you experience Chinese culture through a meaningful homestay with a Chinese high school student and family, cultural enrichment activities, and travel excursions guided by our on-site team and accompanied by Chinese peers.

Experience unique global leadership development opportunities

as you engage in intellectual discussions, projects, and group activities with high school students from China and Germany.

Keeping safety and authenticity in mind, our program offers a truly memorable experience for American high school students.
